

adverb – adjective      ex 4 fill in adverb or adjective

Susan plays the recorder well.

Her fingers dance up and down quickly.

Run quickly or you will miss the bus.

Tom proudly tells us that he is the winner of the first prize.

Sally sadly went away.

She plays table tennis well.

Mandy paints wonderfully.

That was a very good story.

And you told it well.

The English lesson was fun and so it passed quickly.

The man in the lake loudly shouted for help.

Linda luckily found her ring.

It was cold so we put on our coats quickly.

Cook quickly because I'm so hungry.

He could win the match easily.

He will be a famous player one day.

He absolutely hates basketball.

You did your work perfectly.

The man went away quietly and sadly.

Jimmy rode his bike too fast and fell down.

I must tell you honestly that I don't like Jack.

Belinde smiles nicely.

They will possibly come at nine .

He sometimes drives dangerously and too fast .

Wally walked to work quickly.

Linda had a loud voice.

She laughed loudly at parties.

The woman danced especially well.

The poor man's pockets were empty.

Miss Dolly nervously opened the telegram.

The police officer answered their questions politely.

Karen solved the mystery easily.

My uncle drives too fast.

The hungry cat jumped forward.

John always does things very well.

The funny film made them laugh.

Matthew had a bad cold.

September usually has good weather.

The teacher spoke to the children quietly.

She sang the song beautifully.

Mr. Smart answered the questions correctly.

Then it ran into the hole quickly.

The children carefully opened the presents.

My girl-friend looks happy this evening.

The boy climbed down the dangerous cliff.

That is a very good cake .

It tastes good.

Don't run so fast!

Look! That crazy man is climbing to the top of the bridge.

The lazy mechanic worked very slowly on my car.

The thief left the house angrily without anything.