

fill in present simple or past simple

Wir gingen in den Supermarkt. (go) We went to the supermarket.

question: Did we go to the supermarket?

negative: No, we didn't go to the supermarket.

positive: Yes, we went to the supermarket.

Ich esse einen Apfel. (eat) I eat an apple.

question: Do I eat an apple?

negative: No, I don't eat an apple.

positive: Yes, I eat an apple

Ich fand den Schlüssel. (find) I found the key.

question: Did I find the key?

negative: No, I didn't find the key.

positive: Yes, I found the key.

Mary lives in London.

Does Mary live in London?

Tom did the washing-up.

Did Tom do the washing-up?

Helen works hard for her examination.

Does Helen work hard for her examination?

Joe and Tom do their homework.

Do Joe and Tom do their homework?

He knows all about cars.

Does he know all about cars?

Mary came in time.

Did Mary come in time?

Father does the housework.

Does father do the housework?

You did your best.

Did you do the best?

They have dinner at seven o'clock.

Do they have dinner at seven o'clock?

His brother does well in school.

Does his brother do well in school?

She goes to England.

Does she go to England?

The children played in the park.
Did the children play in the park?

Jane has a house of her own.
Does Jane have a house of her own?

The children water the plants every day.
Do they water the plants every day?

They had a good time in the mountains.
Did they have a good time in the mountains?

They like skiing.
Do they like skiing?

She has wonderful plants.
Does she have wonderful plants?

Translate:

Ich will einen Schlecker (want)
I want a lolly.
Will ich einen Schlecker?
Do I want a lolly?

Hanna und Hanni verkauften ein Haus.(sell)
Hanna und Hanni sold a house.
Verkauften Hanni und Hanna ein Haus?
Did Hanna and Hanni sell a house?

Du nimmst das Buch. (take)
You take the book.
Nimmst du das Buch?
Do you take the book?

Wir lasen ein Buch (read)
We read a book
Lasen wir ein Buch?
Did we read a book?