

Passive voice – past tense active: He opened the window.

passive: The window was opened by him.
question: Was the window opened by him?

He listened music in the radio.

Music _____ by _____

They repaired the washing machine.

The washing machine _____ by _____

You loved her a lot.

She _____ by _____ .

He called me.

I _____ by _____

They cut the grass yesterday.

The grass _____ by _____ .

She cleaned the cars.

The cars _____ by _____

We read an article.

_____ an article _____ by _____ ?

They didn't love the dogs a lot.

The dogs _____ a lot by _____

You cut the grass yesterday.

The grass _____ by _____

Marco Polo didn't discover America.

America _____ by Marco Polo.

The pupils made races yesterday.

_____ races _____ yesterday by the pupils?

passive voice

past tense

Tom offered him a very good used bike.
He _____ a very good used bike.

Nobody showed Mary the new house.
Mary _____ the new house.

She asked Linda for a favour.
_____ Linda _____ for a favour?

Beethoven didn't compose "The Magic Flute".
"The Magic Flute" _____ by Beethoven.

Someone lent the farmers 1000 pounds to buy new cars.
_____ the farmers _____ 1000 pounds to buy new car?

Beethoven composed "Fidelio".
"Fidelio" _____ by Beethoven.

The conductors asked for our tickets.
Our tickets _____ by the conductors

He listened music in the radio.
Music _____ by him in the radio.

Peter didn't give the boys a lot of money.
The boys _____ a lot of money.

Someone lent Pat and Tom 1000 pounds to buy a new car.
Pat and Tom _____ 1000 pounds to buy a new car.

LÖSUNGEN

He listened music in the radio.
Music was listened by him

They repaired the washing machine.
The washing machine was repaired by them

You loved her a lot.
She was loved by you.

He called me.
I was called by him

They cut the grass yesterday.
The grass was cut by them.

She cleaned the cars.
The cars were cleaned by her.

We read an article.
Was an article read by us ?

They didn't love the dogs a lot.
The dogs weren't loved a lot by them

You cut the grass yesterday.
The grass was cut by you

Marco Polo didn't discover America.
America wasn't discovered by Marco Polo.

The pupils made races yesterday.
Were races made yesterday by the pupils?

Tom offered him a very good used bike.
He was offered a very good used bike.

Nobody showed Mary the new house.
Mary wasn't shown the new house.

She asked Linda for a favour.
Was Linda asked for a favour?

Where did Mary hide the Christmas presents?
Where were the Christmas presents hidden?

passive voice

past tense

Beethoven didn't compose "The Magic Flute".
"The Magic Flute" wasn't composed by Beethoven.

Someone lent the farmers 1000 pounds to buy new cars.
Were the farmers lent 1000 pounds to buy new car?.

Beethoven composed "Fidelio".
"Fidelio" was composed by Beethoven.

The conductors asked for our tickets.
Our tickets were asked for by the conductors

He listened music in the radio.
Music was listened by him in the radio.

Peter didn't give the boys a lot of money.
The boys weren't given a lot of money.

Someone lent Pat and Tom 1000 pounds to buy a new car.
Pat and Tom were lent 1000 pounds to buy a new car..