

fill in past simple or present perfect simple

I lost my mobile phone two days ago. (lose)

Look! Somebody has broken my bike. (brake)

My father hurried to his office yesterday. (hurry)

We haven't visited him since last weekend. (visit)

How many exercises have you done today? (you, do)

Only two, but I did ten last week. (do)

John lived in England for thirty years, but now he is living in Málaga. (live)

The weather has been very nice this week. (be)

My cousin has lived in France all her life and she still lives there. (live)

Jessica tidied up her room last Saturday. (tidy up)

I have smoked for ten years now. (smoke)

Andy has cleaned his moped. It looks like new. (clean)

Mike baked a cake for his mother last year. (bake)

My English teacher didn't come yesterday. (not come)

I have read the paper. You can have it if you like. (read)

Can I watch TV now? I have finished my homework. (finish)

One hour ago they robbed an old woman of € 100. (rob)

Martin has driven a ten-ton lorry. I'm sure he'll be able to drive a van. (drive)

I have tasted that new marmalade. It's really delicious. (taste)

She has missed my ring for 3 years. (miss)

In 1999 there was a big earthquake in China. (be)

Jim hasn't had a good job for seven weeks. (not have)

On Monday the husband dried the dishes. (dry)

Dick, have you cleaned the windscreen already? (you, clean)

His grandfather died 10 years ago (die)

Dad, have you checked the oil already? (you, check)

Mrs Newton has just come in. (just, come)

When we were on holiday last year the weather was awful. (be)

Yesterday Jenny stayed at home because it was so cold outside. (stay)

Last Easter we found a lot of eggs in the garden. (find)

She has never been to NY. (never, be)

I have seen the movie recently. (see)

They carried the pram to the shop a few days ago. (carry)

Christine, haven't you washed the car yet? (you, not wash)

Morris has just returned from his holiday. (just, return)

Our football team has lost all its matches this year (lose).

It's very depressing.

It has never happened to me before (never happen).

When I was eleven I started in a team called "the tigers" (be, start).

We didn't win many matches (not win), but at least we won from time to time (win). Later I organized a football team in my school (organize).

We were very good and got 4 trophies (be, get).

As you see, I have played for more than ten years now (play), but I have joined this team very recently (join). We are not too bad, but we have been the unluckiest team in the World this year (be).